

UCSC Student Engagement Opportunities

ONE TIME

Alternative Spring Breaks

5-day immersive and intensive community service and social impact program for a cohort of undergraduates

Chicago Studies Workshop

Regular, non-credit interdisciplinary conversations on social impact for students, scholars, journalists, and community leaders

Days of Service

3 annual campus-wide group service opportunities with 75 service sites and smaller monthly events with 5 sites

ONGOING

Chicago Studies Quarter

Academic credit program for 20 selected undergraduates on Chicago's history, culture, and activism

Chicago Studies Scholars Series

Academic and financial support for students interested in pursuing community-based participatory research

Federal Work-Study

Employer placement for more than 150 students at over 50 nonprofits, schools, and government agencies

Service Match

On-going service partnerships available for individual and group volunteerism

Community Service Student Organizations

A UCSC-coordinated network of student organizations geared toward a variety of social causes in Chicago

Seeds of Justice

Academic-year student leadership development program on social change for 20 selected first-year students

SUMMER

Summer Links

10-week social impact education and internship program that consists of site visits, community explorations, and group discussions

MAPSCorps

Public health research and community service project aimed at mapping the community assets of South Side neighborhoods

Chicago Bound

8-day pre-orientation program for 40 first-year students and 8 upperclassmen group leaders promoting community awareness and civic engagement

Direct Service

Intensive Group Experience

Academic Tie-ins

Career Exploration

General questions can be directed to:
UCSC@uchicago.edu